Estimated Family Contribution is what the U.S. Department of Education calculates what your family is able to contribute to your education based on income, taxes, educational costs, etc.. Many colleges require the EFC for students applying for scholarships. It is done nationally and the forms can be obtained on the NET. Go to the US Department of Education site

<http://studentaid.ed.gov>

There you will choose FAFSA start. The FAFSA page will guide you through the EFC application process.
